The image shows a screenshot of a Microsoft Teams meeting join page. At the top, a white dialog box with a grey border contains the text: "This site is trying to open Microsoft Teams." followed by "https://teams.microsoft.com wants to open this application." Below this text are two buttons: "Open" (highlighted with a red dashed box and a red arrow) and "Cancel".

Below the dialog box, the main content area has a heading "How do you want to join your Teams meeting?" on the left. On the right, there are three options, each in a white box with a red dashed border:

- Continue on this browser: No download or installation required. (Highlighted with a red dashed box and a red arrow)
- Download the Windows app: Use the desktop app for the best experience.
- Open your Teams app: Already have it? Go right to your meeting.
